

Assessment

The health team will meet with you to evaluate your needs and goals. After the assessment has been completed, the health team will meet to specifically discuss your evaluation and determine if your needs can be appropriately met by our program. If so, the health team will develop an individual plan for services and schedule time with you to explain how it will best meet your needs and preferences. However, LIFE cannot guarantee or offer enrollment before a formal eligibility determination has been made.